

South Asia Tsunami, December 26, 2004

Corporate Disaster Relief Efforts

Company	Total Contribution	NonCash	Cash	Cash to NGOs*	Ratio of Cash Match for Employee	Funds raised by employees (associates)	Funds raised by others (customers / vendors)	Corporate cash match of employee contributions	Notes
Altria Group, Inc.	$1,615,600	$15,600	$1,600,000	$1,600,000		0	0	0	Philip Morris International, an operating company of Altria, has committed $1.5 million to aid in the rebuilding effort, as well as the Sampoerna Rescue Team providing temporary shelters, doctors, paramedics, food, medicines, and blankets. Kraft Foods has provided $25,000 to the IFRC and committed $25,000 to Save the Children. Altria has committed $50,000 to AmeriCares.
American Express Foundation	$25,000	$0	$25,000	$25,000		0	0	0	American Express Foundation will make a $25,000 contribution through our American Red Cross disaster relief fund, and match U.S. employee donations to relief agencies through our U.S. employee gift matching program.
Bank of America	$0	$0	$0	$0		0	0	0	$25,000 Foundation gift is for Save the Children.
Eli Lilly and Company	$0	$0	$50,000	$50,000	1-to-1	0	0	0	We have committed $50,000 to MercyCorps for Relief Efforts. We will also match employee contributions 1 to 1 up to $50,000. Will make one payment equal to total raised by employees by July 5.
Ernst & Young LLP	$50,000	$0	$50,000	$50,000	0	0	0	0	Ernst & Young making a $50,000 donation to fund setup by E&Y Indonesia.
HSBC	$150,000	$0	$150,000	$150,000		0	0	0
JPMorgan Chase	$200,000	$0	$100,000	$100,000	1 to 1	$100,000	0	$100,000	The JPMorgan Chase Foundation is donating $100,000 to UNICEF, which is on the ground providing essential supplies, including water and tents. Additionally, the firm will match employee contributions to UNICEF dollar-for-dollar up to $100,000.
Lehman Brothers	$100,000	$0	$100,000	$100,000		0	0	0	Contribution being made by The Lehman Brothers Foundation
Merck & Co., Inc.	$340,470	$240,470	$100,000	$100,000		0	0	0	$100,000 Merck Company Foundation donation is to Save the Children. In addition, Merck will match U.S. employee donations to relief agencies through our U.S. employee gift matching program. http://www.merck.com/cr/commitment_to_communities/disaster_relief/home.html
Totals:	2,481,070	256,070	2,175,000	2,175,000		100,000	0	100,000

*The above is not a comprehensive list of disaster relief efforts, but a sampling of corporate response to the Tsunami.